

Leadership c.1945-1965 - Activity 3

Profiling Cold War Leaders (1945-65): The Hall of Fame

Aims

- Understand and explain to others (using appropriate, clear and grammatically correct language) the relative significance of the early Cold War leaders
- Work like a historian to understand the public and private personas of key public figures

Resources

coldwarLDA3.lgfl.net is your one-stop link to curriculum resources for this activity; you will find videos, photographs and links to the relevant main Cold War sections.

There is also an accompanying PowerPoint template which teachers may want to use to complete this task.

Your task

The Cold War saw many clashes between leaders of the USA and USSR in the years following 1945. Here are some key Cold War leaders:

- Winston Churchill (UK)
- Franklin D Roosevelt (USA)
- Josef Stalin (USSR)
- Harry Truman (USA)
- Nikita Khrushchev (USSR)
- Dwight Eisenhower (USA)
- John F Kennedy (USA)

Your task is to create a profile for each of these leaders and enter them into a Cold War Leaders Hall of Fame. We have prepared a PowerPoint file to help you but your teacher may ask you to use another medium.
